Through four days of competition the 2018 Stance ISA World Adaptive Surfing Championship presented by the City of San Diego is set to award the Gold Medals in La Jolla, USA.

Twelve individual and the Team World Champions will be crowned during an action-packed string of Finals on Sunday.

Team Brazil comes in as the two-time defending champion, currently sitting in second position heading into the final day. Team USA currently holds a lead in potential points and will look to earn their first-ever Team Gold in the event.
