The 2016 edition of the VISSLA ISA World Junior Surfing Championship is the largest ever in the 37-year history of the event, featuring 371 surfers from 39 nations.

With Surfing's recent inclusion on the Sports Program of the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games, the competing junior surfers are a glimpse into the future of the Olympic surfers in 2020.

Day 6 of the action featured high performance Surfing in the epic waves of the Azores. The stage was set for an action packed final three days of competition as the world's best National Junior Surfing Team and individual surfers look to be crowned world champions.
