The SUP Technical races sparked an action-packed fifth day of competition at the 2018 ISA World SUP and Paddleboard Championship at Riyue Bay in Wanning, China.

The Men's and Women's Semifinals ran to qualify athletes for the Finals to take place on Wednesday, set to award the first racing medals of the event.

Two qualification slots for the 2019 Pan Am Games in Lima are up for grabs for the top finishing man and woman from the Americas in the SUP Technical Race Finals.

Three ISA SUP Gold Medalists, USA's Connor Baxter, Denmark's Casper Steinfath, and France's Tituoan Puyo, took the top qualification spots in the Men's Semifinals.
