

SPORT: SURFING

EVENT: 2017 ISA WORLD SURFING GAMES

PLACE: GRANDE PLAGES, BIARRITZ, FRANCE

DATE: MAY 22, 2017 (DAY 3 COMPETITION - AFTERNOON)

Length: 2:07

0:08 – 0:43 – COLOR

0:43 – 1:35 ACTION

- 0:45 - Pauline Ado (FRA)
- 1:02 – Johanne Defay (FRA)
- 1:16 – Leilani McGonagle (CRC)
- 1:29 – Johanne Defay (FRA)

1:36 – 2:07 – INTERVIEW – PAULINE ADO (FRA)

Team France put on a dominating performance at the Grande Plage on day 3 of the 2017 ISA World Surfing Games in Biarritz. Through a superstar final featuring world-class female surfers, Team France's Pauline Ado and Johanne Defay came out on top and respectively took the Gold and Silver Medals for the host country.

Rounding out the women's podium were Costa Rica's Leilani McGonagle, who earned her second ISA World Surfing Games Bronze Medal in three years, and South Africa's Bianca Buitendag, who earned Copper Medal.